The Food Group 2018

The Food Group works on both ends of the food system from production to distribution. Working towards building a better local food system for all, we focus on breaking down barriers to growing good food locally and breaking down barriers to getting good food to those who need it most.

Dear Friends,

Your trust and partnership truly make our mission to fight hunger and nourish our community possible.

I saw the privilege of seeing this every day, volunteers, donors, and community partners supporting us, so we can collectively do more than any of us could do alone. Working together every day, seeing that where there is need there are always people working for change. This is powerful and this builds community.

For more than 40 years, The Food Group has worked to provide good food to those who need it most in our community. Now working at both ends of the food system from production to distribution, we are growing good food locally and getting good food to those who need it most.

With a strong continued focus on nutrition, equity, and fresh produce in everything we do, we look ahead to 2020 as a year to advance systems change, focus on community engagement, and do more to focus on the local food system.

Thank you to everyone involved at The Food Group. Because of you, we can provide food for today and change for tomorrow.

Warm Regards,

Lori Thorp
